RILLS FROM THE TOWN PUMP

BY ELVIRA SYDOR MILLER.

The Honorable Augustus Willson, is republican nominee for governor, is one of the most courteous gentlemen on the footstool. On one occasion when he was an applicant for office the papers could not procure any picture of him and he obstinately declined to have one taken. It was rare sight to see him, who would not burn his cloak rushing down to the footlights to get his picture in the papers and the baffled reporters wondered with a large W. I was then cutting a large and lovely supply of wisdom teeth on the Times, and recollecting that Mr. Willson had been a warm friend of a deceased uncle of mine I interviewed him in his office, reminded him of this fact and implored him to give me a picture. Ten minutes later he was on his way to a photograph gallery where the picture was taken and sent to me. He used another purpose, but the printer dispenses—when the cuts were ready to run in the paper I was absent and that afternoon when the Times appealed on sale I was horrified to find the portrait of Mr. Willson beaming at me as a noted mountain desperado. I retired from the cyclone pit, but candidate Willson's forbearance was equal to his courtesy—he has spoken kindly to me ever since and such is my appreciation of his forgiving spirit that I would never like to see him taken from life—say by a photographer.

He never ran for office, he has no charms or attractions. He never joined a baseball club and limed on for three bases. He never owned a whining horse, he has no pretty daughters. His wife was not a bowing belle before he saw and caught her; he never had the machine nor try to knock it down. Nor with a patent medicine has he achieved raiment. But men and women seek him out and keep his front gate busy—They mob him at the station, too, until his head grows dizzy; He never paid a bill at the place, no other fills the bill. His is the sole lawn-mower in all Commerville.

Captain John Headley is going to commune with nature. He has bought some of the old Kentucky land property now. Hoosierdale is in planning to locate thereon. People out that way will get a mighty good fellow for a neighbor for the Captain is a nice man; he has also written a book about his experiences in the civil war which is unique in its way; in fact, there is no book like it inasmuch as the volume does not contain a single adjective.

Of course this will hit it with the women folk—a work which is destined of "per-fect-ly-beautiful," just too lovely, so cute and gorgeous," can't be beat. And for the bachelors, you might as well ask them to take soda water without ice cream.

It's remarkable how many of our city fathers and grandfathers are returning to the soil once more. Dr. Dudley S. Reynolds, the eminent oculist and aurl, has taken to himself a charming wife and purchased a farm. Col. Bennett Young has a farm on the Seventh street road which he visits daily catching up and putting in his time. And if you go to the offices of some of our best-known business men you will find them brushing hayseed out of their hair or picking burs off the fringes of their trousers.

This reminds me that Col. John Duncan has produced the largest known sunflower which he has named "The Morning After" because it has such a terrible head on it.

They had joined the source's soulful hum. Mid the fates and fads I risk. What a life I lead, the big bass drum. A snuff by Paderewski; The folks at the music meet. Were fitted with a wretched Symphonie. Then the Wagnerian symphony. And I wangled the Wagnerian lyre.

"Say, do you like corn on the ear?" asked he.

In the midst of the music's blare.

And this stated as he said dreamily.

"I have had a dream."

And this said mid the tuneful hum.

While the fat man beat on the big bass drum.

A book which will forthcoming this summer will contain interesting reading for readers in Kentucky. It is to be entitled "Who's Who: A History Of The Democratic Party In The State." It will be illustrated with portraits of prominent men selected from one—should say all—of the life—of the county courthouses and jails of Kentucky. The preface will be written by the Hon. Thomas H. Payne, U. S. Senator, while the advisory board is composed of some of the party lights whose names are household words. The work will be bound in silk cloth with gold sides and back stamp. It is the intention of the editors to present a handsomely bound copy of the book to each. How William Jennings Bryan, the boy who have the silver dollars, silver back stamp and he is sincere and the measured words.

No matter what dishes his wife would cook her baby sat cool in the shade. He would meanly remark with a terrible look: "They don't taste like the ones mother made."

No matter how heavy or greasy they be.

A sigh of relief he smothers. As he puts down his fork and remarks suddenly: "They can never come up to mother's."

As he was wrong. Wishing to relieve the kid's suspense as to his identity ex-Mayor Reed remarked suavely, "Now, my boy, just stop and look at the night, the crescent and the measured words."

under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1893.

THURSDAY, JULY 4, 1907.

SINCE Louisville wants the next national democratic convention, and since Jeffersontown does not want it just at this time, we are ready to take off our coats, roll up our sleeves and help our neighbor at the Falls in her laudable endeavor to get it. We have plenty of room out here to take care of the overflow, yellow-leg chickens are abundant and "Marse Henry's" mint-bed is looking fine. Bring on your convention.

THE much talked of "lid" was on in Louisville as "tight as Dick's lid-batt'd," and what Mayor Barth couldn't or didn't do in eighteen months was accomplished by Mayor Bingham within eighteen hours after his inauguration. The laws of the state are on the statute book to be enforced and the executive who is true to the oath of his office and enforces them deserves the encouragement and support of all law-abiding citizens.

CERTAINLY $275,000 for Douglas Park as a permanent site for the State Fair seems more than a fair price for 129 acres of "crawfish" land, even conceding the somewhat questionable "estimate" of $20,000 for the improvements consisting of a grandstand, stables and track. It will be difficult for the state's taxpayers to view this matter from the standpoint of Messrs. Laurence Jones, Hubert Vreeland and Guthrie Wilson, the members of the committee who voted in favor of the purchase.

The author of the Declaration of Independence was noted, it is said, for his fondness for neighborhood gossip. While President his biographers say that he wrote to his daughter in Virginia: "If there is any news stirring in town or county let me know it. Write me all the small news, who marry and who hang themselves because they cannot marry." The Jeffersonian, deriving its name from such a man, ought not be considered overcautious, therefore, in wanting all the news from every section of the country.

A man of whose nativity Jefferson town is not excessively proud, last week took occasion to refer to The Jeffersonian as an insignificant sheet whose existence would likely be of short duration. We do not consider him a prophet nor yet the son of a prophet; and it is certain that he is not a man wise in his day or generation. The Jeffersonian will quite likely live long enough to publish his obituary, and when it does, though it will be reluctant to call him a human iceberg, its 3,000 readers shall hear the truth about him. It may indeed be necessary to say to this man before he has said all of this mortal coil, and if it does he will not find remarks altogether pleasant reading. Even a "little country newspaper" has its audience with whom its utterances are apt to bear fruit.

Editor J. S. Wilson Dead.

Mr. J. S. Wilson, who established the Kentucky Standard at Bardstown several years ago, died last Sunday afternoon after a brief illness of stomach trouble.

Mr. Wilson was a descriptive writer and author of ability, having written many articles for American magazines and leading English publications. He also wrote some splendid stories of fiction that showed versatile talent and which always found a ready sale among the leading publications of the country.

Our business manager, J. C. Alcock, was associated with him for several years in the publication of The Standard, which paper Mr. Wilson succeeded in making one of the best in Kentucky.

Since the establishment of The Standard he has published historical sketches of Nelson county each week, giving valuable information to the many readers of that paper.

Requiescat in pace.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Hunter and children will leave July 10 for a stay at Atlantic City.

Miss Julia Heick gave a garden party recently in honor of her guest, Miss Margaret Root, of Terre Haute, Ind.

Miss Myrtle Sproule, principal of the Crescent Hill school, was with a Swastiki band at the close of school by the seven "A" grades.

George, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. George Merckle is recovering from typhoid fever.

Afer a short illness from glanders, a rare disease, contracted from an affected horse, Dr. Orville A. Kennedy passed away June 22. Dr. Kennedy was born in Crescent Hill and was in his forty-second year. He was eminent as a physician, esteemed as a teacher and learned in his profession.

WORTHINGTON

Miss Ruth Pernell, of Pendleton, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Quisenberry.

Miss Nell Waugh has returned to her home at Todd's Point, after a visit to Miss Lizzie Evans Claxton.

The Rev. Harding, of Winchester, held his regular appointment at the Christian church Sunday.

Mr. Charles Fox Harvey will spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith at Willowbrook Farm.

Miss Agatha Schuler and brother, Louis of Crescent avenue, are visiting their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Xavier Schuler, Jr.

Miss Virginia Taylor, matron of the Baptist Seminary, Louisville, has returned to her home at Horseshoe Bend, and remains for a year's rest.

Misses Nellie and Lillian Netherton had their summer holidays Sunday, Misses French and Bertha Rause, of Louisville.

The click of the binder has been a very familiar sound for the past week. The wheat crop promises to be very fair, but the orchard grass not so good, but we should be thankful for small mercies.

The Rev. Laird, pastor of the Springfield Presbyterian church and Mrs. Laird and nephews, James and Maurice, have moved into the parsonage at Springfield, for the summer.

Miss Elizabeth Hamilton Smith gave an informal luncheon for Misses Helen Ramey and Gladys Sennet, of New Orleans, yesterday afternoon.

J. W. Newton recently sold to Henry F. Smith and sons, sixteen acres of land for $175 an acre. They will erect three houses on this land in the early fall.

Miss Nannie Guthrie, of O'Bannon, gave a hay ride in honor of her guests, Misses Laura and Vera Carl, of Jeffersontown and Miss Sue Jenkins, of Bardstown.

The enterprising farmers of Worthington and vicinity should get together and see about having an electric line from Louisville to Worthington. I am sure it would be well patronized and is needed badly.

BREVITIES

ZONETON

BULLITT COUNTY.

Boys Home at Glenview.
John W. Vreeland has purchased the Owens property at Glenview 'on the Prospect line for a summer home.

Bullitt Teachers' Institute.

The Bullitt county teachers' institute will convene at Shepherdsville July 8. Prof. M. O. Winfrey, of Mid-dlesboro, will have charge of the program.

Postoffices To Be Abolished.

The postoffice department at Washington has ordered the discontinuance of the postoffices at Routh, Worthington and Malton. Patrons of these offices will hereafter get their mail by rural free delivery.

Lee's Brown's Son Dies.

Poster Hamilton, the seven-months old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown, of Goson, died Sunday afternoon, and the body was interred in the cemetery at Brownsboro Monday. Mr. Brown formerly lived near Harrod's Creek and is well-known in that section, where his numerous friends sympathize with him in his loss.

Lots At Okolona Auctioned.

Of the forty-nine 1-acre lots comprising Parie City at Okolona, which were to have been disposed of at auction Saturday only nine were sold. Prices ranged from $180 to $300, the latter price being paid by Miss Georgie Brown for a corner tract. Rain interfered with the sale to some extent.

Poorhouse Board Meets.

The management meeting of the Board of Poorhouse Commissioners, composed of Dr. S. O. Witherbee, Jas. G. Scott, Wash Gilmore and J. P. Swindler was held here Friday. Bids for painting two of the poorhouse buildings were submitted but withdrawn, as the Board decided to have several other buildings painted also, and new bids will be asked for on all of the work.

Spencer County Primary.

The democratic committee of Bullitt county has left to Spencer county the selection of the democratic candidate for representative for that legislature district, and a primary has been called for August 10. The candidates are S. K. Baird, W. M. Thompson and A. J. Ottuff. All of them are good men and either would make an admirable representative.

Fined and Placed Under Bond.

For fighting on a public highway Ed Miles and his wife Annie, colored, were arrested Sunday morning at Fairmount by county patrolman F. M. Williams. The dusky couple were tried in Louisville Monday in Square Hoffman's court, and were awarded a fine of $22.50, besides being put under bond for $400 to keep the peace for four months.

Oil on Bardstown Road.

Crude oil is being applied to the Bardstown road from the city limits to Doup's Point for the purpose of keeping down the dust. The dust nuisance on this road is horrible, and the work of spreading oil on the road should have been done before now. About two applications during the summer are all that are necessary to completely do away with the dust, and the oil also improves the road. Whether ever this experiment has been tried it has proven a success. Incidentally it may be remarked that Jeffersons could stand for a little oil on its streets.

Magistrates Find Collision.

The committee appointed by the Fiscal court to investigate the charge preferred by County Attorney Binger against the two companies which installed the steel furniture in the offices in the court house has reported that an alliance existed between the companies. It recommends that the Bankers' Construction Company be discharged from further service in completing the contract, and that final acceptance of the work be left to arbitration. Members of the court are exonerated from any collusion with either of the companies in letting the bid.

Lincoln Appointed County Judge.

Walter Lincoln, member of the Louisville bar, was appointed County Judge by Gov. Beckham last Saturday to succeed Chas. A. Wilson, removed. Judge Wilson has announced his intention to be a candidate for the office at the November election. Judge Lincoln was born in Louisville and was educated in the city schools and at St. Xavier's College. He studied at the University of Louisville and since 1881 has been a member of the law firm of Lether and Lincoln. Judge Lincoln will appoint the Sheriff, County Clerk, Assessor, Jailer, Coroner, Surveyor and County Attorney.

THE FAIR

At Fern Creek This Year Promises To Be The Best Jefferson County Has Ever Had.

The seventh annual fair at Fern Creek, under the auspices of the Jefferson County Fair Company, will be held this year at the fair grounds eight miles from Louisville on the Bardstown road, August 13, 14, and 15.

To those who have had the good fortune to attend this fair heretofore no words are necessary to assure them it is the best in all Kentucky.

To those who have not had that pleasure it is only necessary to say that the fair this year promises to be better than ever. A new grand stand, fair track, shadron, an unlimited supply of the purest, coolest and best water to be found anywhere, good music, and an unsurpassed display of fine household products, beautiful needlework, displays of fruit and agricultural displays, all these unmarred by dust, disorder, grating or the smell of horses, making the fair a "real fair" one of pleasure, and joy unlimited.

The second day of the fair will be devoted to the exhibit of live stock and numerous premiums will be awarded for the best exhibits in this class. Bryan Williams will be the superintendent, Mote Williams, marshal and Jno. Long, master of the ring.

The Committee on Judges in the live stock exhibit are Dr. H. Alderson, Jones and E. A. Low.

Thursday, Aug. 15, the third day of the fair will be Louisville day, and everyone is invited to make the metropolis of the state proud of being a part of Jefferson county.

Friday, Aug. 16, will be known as "Bardstown Road day."

Fayette Risner will be the superintendent of the exhibit of farm products. Of garden products Logan Leatherman is superintendent, and Moses Bates will superintend the grape display, except of single plate entries of which Orville Stivers will be in charge.

W. B. Berry will superintend the display of peaches, and Ben Williams, the display of pears.

J. B. Alley is superintendent of the grape exhibit, and Harvey Bates of melons and plums.

In the special household exhibit of bread and cake Miss Jennie Finley and Miss Lizzie Hawes will be the superintendents, Miss Julia Berry and Miss Eunice Johnson are the superintendents of the display of household products, and the editor of The Jeffersonian wants to tender his services in superintending the various exhibits in this class.

In needle work Miss Bessie Stivers and Miss Della Stainfield will be the superintendents, while Noah E. Berry will have charge of a special exhibit of vegetables, etc., to be competed for by boys and girls under fourteen years of age.

The display of flowers will be superintended by Miss Georgia Bush, assisted by Bob Johnson. Entries for this exhibit must be made on the first day by 6 o'clock, p. m.

Dr. W. M. Farmer and David Kyser compose the committee on judges in the display of farm and garden products.

No one who attends the fair this year will have any occasion for disappointment, as it will be the best of the year.

The Jeffersonian's job department is equipped with all new material. For letter heads, bill heads, envelopes, etc., 'phone 7-3. We can save you money.

HARROD'S CREEK

Marriage of Miss Venable to Mr. Bramlett—Waters Farm Subdivided—Dr. Hays Building a Handsome Residence.

Dr. John Edwin Hays is building a residence on the tract of land he purchased from P. P. Huston at "Hinton Hills." This property adjoins "Rio Vista," the country home of John H. Caperton, and is one of the most beautiful sites overlooking the Ohio river.

The large farm of John S. Waters, on the Prospect electric line, has been subdivided and is being offered in tracts ranging from 3 to 25 acres. An attractive feature of the subdivision is the feature of connecting the River road by way of Woodside station with the Brownsville pike. The Waters' house on this farm is well known as having been the home of George Rogers Clark and Major St. George Croghan, both famous in our country's history.

The home of the late John W. Owen, formerly a well known Louisville business man, was sold by auction Thursday last and was purchased by John W. Vreeland. The property is situated at Glenview on the Prospect electric line.

Jesse Chrisler, of the Harrod's Creek Grocery company, has been ill for a few days, but is now rapidly regaining his usual good health.

Dr. William Mason, of the bluegrass section, is visiting his brother, A. H. Mason at Transylvania.

3 FREE TRIPS

WITH ALL EXPENSES PAID BY THE JEFFERSONIAN TO

The Jamestown Exposition

Have you a mother, sister, daughter or sweetheart to whom you would like to present one of the most interesting and enjoyable trips of the year WITHOUT COST simply by subscribing for your county paper, The Jeffersonian, now instead of later?

THE PROPOSITION IS SIMPLE.

We want several thousand subscribers within the next three months and to get them we propose to be generous to our friends. We will send to the Jamestown Exposition party of three, paying the entire expenses, railroad fare, sleeper and dining car charges, hotel bills, admissions to the Exposition and to the amusement concessions on the "Warpath," and all the incidental fees of a fifteen days' trip, from the time the party leaves Louisville until its return home.

Besides visiting the Exposition the party will spend two or three days in Washington, D. C., visit Washington's home at Mt. Vernon, view the historical points of interest in and about Richmond, and at Norfolk, Hampton Roads, Old Point Comfort; in fact, enjoy one of the pleasantest and most instructive trips possible.

HOW THE PARTY WILL BE CHOSEN.

For the purposes of this trip we have divided Jefferson county into two districts:

DISTRICT A comprises the First and Second Magisterial districts, composed of the following election precincts: Anchorage, Boston, Douglass, Fairmount, Fern Creek, Fisherville, Brooks, Harrod's Creek, Indian Hill, Jeffersontown, Lakeland, Malott, Middletown, O'Bannon, Springfield and Watterson.

DISTRICT B comprises the Third and Fourth Magisterial districts, composed of the following election precincts: Albermarle, Cross Roads, East Highland Park, Meadow Lawn, Oakdale, Robbs, Schardene, Shively, Spring Garden, Two-mile House, Valley, West Highland Park, West Louisville and Woods.

A Lady From Each District.

From each of these two districts, A and B, a lady will be selected by our readers, who will vote for that purpose, and the lady of these two receiving the greatest number of votes will be privileged to choose the third member of the party.

In each issue of The Jeffersonian, beginning with this number, there will be printed a coupon which may be cut out and cast for any white lady, young or old, married or single, the only condition being that she shall reside in either district A or B and outside the city limits of Louisville.

HOW TO GET VOTES.

Every dollar paid for a subscription to The Jeffersonian, or for advertising in its columns, or for printing done in The Jeffersonian's job office will entitle the person paying it to 100 votes which may be cast in this contest.

Conditions Governing the Contest.

Ladies voted for must be bona fide residents of Jefferson county outside the city limits of Louisville. Votes may be cast by anyone. There is no limit as to the age of the persons voted for, nor as to whether they are married or single. The lady receiving the greatest number of votes may choose a companion, man, woman or child, married or single, mother, father, sister, brother, or someone else's brother to accompany her as the guest of The Jeffersonian.

Every dollar paid for subscriptions will entitle the subscriber to 100 votes, but no subscription may be paid for more than two years.

Every dollar paid for advertising will entitle the advertiser to 100 votes.

Every dollar paid for job printing will entitle the purchaser to 100 votes.

These votes will be issued only at the time of payment, but may be cast at any time before October 1.

For all our subscribers may have a voice in this contest each one who has already paid his subscription will be entitled to cast 100 votes for anyone he may choose to nominate, upon application to this office on or before July 9.

No votes under this offer will be cast after that date. The coupon published in this issue of The Jeffersonian is good for 20 votes and must be cast within one week after their publication. Coupons printed during August and September will be good for 5 votes each, so the sooner you subscribe the greater the number of votes you will receive. Special votes will be offered from time to time, as, for instance, the contestant receiving the greatest number of votes in EACH district during July will be awarded a special ballot good for 1,000 votes; that is to say the lady in District A, for whom the greatest number of votes are cast during July will be credited with 1,000 additional votes, and the lady in District B receiving the greatest number of votes during the same period will likewise be given 1,000 votes in addition to the cast for her.

These votes may be secured from anywhere, but they must be cast for a lady who resides in this county outside of Louisville. No payment of less than one dollar will be entitled to any votes.

The contest begins with this issue of The Jeffersonian and will close at 12 o'clock noon Tuesday, October 1, 1907. The trip will be made in October, the most beautiful month in the year to visit Washington, the Exposition and the seashore. It will be personally conducted, a representative of The Jeffersonian accompanying the party and seeing to their every comfort. Everything will be first-class—there will be nothing cheap about it, and the trip is worth working for.

No person connected with The Jeffersonian will be allowed to take any part in the contest, either by voting or soliciting votes for any of the contestants. The contest will be fair, without favoritism, and a "square deal" for all. The votes will be deposited in a locked ballot box to be kept in the office of the Bank of Jefferson county in Jeffersontown, the keys to which are in the possession of Messrs. Wm. H. Ames, cashier of the bank, and E. R. Sprowl. These gentlemen will be in charge of the ballot box and will open it on Tuesday afternoon, certifying the result and destroying the ballots immediately after the count. The standing of the candidates will be published in each issue of The Jeffersonian.

Votes may be cast in person or they may be mailed to The Jeffersonian or to either of the judges, who will deposit them in the ballot box. All differences that may arise will be decided by the publishers of this paper.
